5th ANNUAL MAMMOTH CUP GOLF TOURNAMENT CONGRATULATES NEW CHAMPIONS

For immediate release - Pendleton, OR

The fifth annual Mammoth Cup Golf Tournament presented by Wildhorse Resort & Casino held on Sunday, May 21 at the Wildhorse Resort Golf Course enjoyed a day of perfect weather. This tourney is the premiere fundraiser for Tamástslíkt Cultural Institute and is always a popular event.

Tamástslíkt Cultural Institute is the interpretive center and museum of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation. Since its opening in 1998, more than a half million visitors have enjoyed its spectacular setting at the base of the Blue Mountains. Inside its walls of native stone and wood are 45,000 square feet of exhibits, archive vaults, research library, museum store, café and meeting spaces. Tamástslíkt Cultural Institute has become a major attraction and a source of pride not only for tribal members but all of the region.

This year's results for the 2017 Mammoth Cup are as follows:

First Place Gross - Wildhorse Casino Slots Team of David Rohn, Jeremy Barkley, Louie Quaempts, Paul French (56)

About Tamástslikt Cultural Institute

Tamástslikt Cultural Institute is owned and operated by the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation. A Blue Star museum, Tamástslikt is one of the many museums across the nation that offers free admission to families of active duty servicemen and women year-round.

In addition to the museum and interpretive center, Tamástslíkt operates a museum store, café, and offers meeting room rentals. Tamástslíkt is open six days a week, 10am-5pm, Monday-Saturday; closed Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day. Kinship Café is open from 11am to 2pm on the same days the museum is open (although currently closed through May for renovations).

Tamástslíkt is located at 47106 Wildhorse Boulevard at the far end of the main driveway of the Wildhorse Resort & Casino, 10 minutes east of Pendleton, Oregon. Tamástslíkt can be reached via Exit 216 off Interstate I-84 or by following the "Mission-LaGrande" sign south off Highway 11 onto Highway 331.
