Getting ready to head out and tee off!

6TH ANNUAL MAMMOTH CUP GOLF TOURNAMENT at Tamástslíkt Cultural Institute RESULTS

For immediate release - Pendleton, OR

The 2018 Mammoth Cup Golf Tournament, the annual fundraiser event for Tamastslíkt Cultural Museum, attracted 27 teams this year and enjoyed perfect weather despite predictions of rain. Wildhorse Resort & Casino was the presenting sponsor of the tournament with Pepsi/Pendleton Bottling Co., CHI St. Anthony Hospital, Aristocrat, Scientific Games, Umatilla Confederated Tribes, and AGS as major sponsors. With a field of 108 players, the competition was stiff and more than one tie-breaker was required to determine winners.

This year's Low Gross winners were: First place – Wildhorse Resort & Casino team of Al Tovey, Dave Tovey, Thad Jackson, Gavin Devore; Second place – Wes Jones, Jim Warrick, Josh Barkley, David Zenidhek; Third place – Chris Long, Jim Greene, Robin Greene, Marshall Byerley.

Low Net Winners were: First place – Wenaha Group team of Megan George, Haley Greb, Makenzie McLeod, and Gracie Broadfoot; Second place – Clover Island Inn team of Mark Blotz, Zack Blotz, Ryan Cooper, Michael Cooper; Third place – Brad Pieper, James Simpson, Tina Lone Bear, Tate Vallem.

Dixon Golf and Aurelius Golf hosted on-course games where players won Dixon balls, drivers, and other prizes. Dixon Golf is an eco-friendly golf company located in Tempe, AZ which manufactures eco-friendly golf balls and apparel. Aurelius Golf was born out of a desire to make a difference. Every Aurelius golf club benefits a worthy cause so owners know their purchase has built a community, changed a life, or made the world a better place. These partners align with Tamástslíkt's own goals to conserve energy and reach a net zero energy consumption level.

Several side bets were offered including the Wrong-Handed Putting Contest sponsored by Steve and Susan Corey which was won by Paul French in a putt-off between French, David Liberty, and Sierra James. Dillon George and Kevin Zenishek tied for Closest to the Pin. Dan Mooney won Men's Longest Drive and Megan George won Women's Longest Drive. Longest Putt was won by Jonathon Morrison.

Lydig Construction of Spokane treated the players to free Brats on the Hole #5. Lydig, which has undertaken several construction projects for Wildhorse, will also be constructing a new Clubhouse.

Participants enjoyed an Indian Taco Awards Banquet prepared by Kinship Café at the tournament's conclusion. Other sponsors were acknowledged including Wenaha Group, Clover Island Inn, Ainsworth, Everi, Crane Payment Innovations, NW Public Affairs, Hester & Zehren, Byrnes Oil Co. as well as Side Bet sponsors David Liberty (Tamástslíkt Trust Board member), East Oregonian, Esprit Graphic Communications, and Attitude Marketing.
